

RPET Felt

Felt is made of natural or synthetic fibers. With a nonwoven technique these fibers are condensed and then pressed together.

The production process of RPET felt is the same as traditional felt, however the fibers that are being used are made of recycled PET bottles. Therefore, products made from RPET felt still have the robust look as traditional felt, but additionally contribute to a more sustainable promotion.

RPET Felt

Felt is made of natural or synthetic fibers. With a nonwoven technique these fibers are condensed and then pressed together.

For more information on sustainable merchandise ideas
Call +44 (0)20 8569 2250 or Email uksales@geiger.com

Geiger[®]
Brandspiration.